Classroom Policies & Information

METHODOLOGY

This is a student-centered course that utilizes language immersion through classroom instruction and student participation in the target language (Spanish). Communicative language learning occurs primarily through paired and group work and meaningful communicative tasks during class. Students are expected to prepare diligently prior to each class period, where they will primarily put into practice what they have learned.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- Bring the textbook to class every day.
- Silence and put away all devices (cell phones, smart watches, laptops, etc.) during class in accordance with Indiana state law.
- Attend every class. See course policy regarding absences.
- Participate and engage actively in classroom activities, discussions, and presentations.
- Read and engage with assigned pages prior to arriving in class.
- Complete all assignments on time. Late work is not accepted.
- Always attempt communication in Spanish during class with instructor and classmates.

CHAPTER EXAMS

At the end of each chapter, students will take an exam to formally assess their understanding and retention of material presented during that chapter. Students should review the "Exam Instructions Study Guide" for each chapter posted in Canvas, which includes exact content coverage, format information, and point value allocations. Each exam includes vocabulary, grammar, and culture.

HOMEWORK

Daily homework assignments for this class include, but are not limited to, reading and studying assigned textbook pages and completing online and/or written work. Each assignment for that class period is listed in the syllabus course calendar in the "For Today's Class" section. Please refer to "Attendance Policy" for further information on homework and absences.

PARTICIPATION AND COLLABORATION

Students are expected to utilize the help provided to always attempt to speak Spanish during class. Expectations for class participation are as follows: a) Interaction – Positive and productive communication with others; b) Preparation – On-time completion of assigned homework and readings; c) Attentiveness – Active and engaged mental and physical posture; d) Initiative – Regular volunteering to answer or ask a question; e) Production – Concerted effort to express oneself in Spanish. Evaluation rubric is included below:

Excellent (25): Always interacts in a positive and productive way with others; demonstrates preparedness for every class; mentally engages in classroom activities and maintains physical attentiveness in body posture; Volunteers answers or questions without dominating participation; attempts to speak only in Spanish in all classroom contexts

Great (22.5-24.5): Regularly demonstrates the qualities for Excellent participation but only occasionally volunteers answers or questions

Appropriate (20-22): Interacts in a positive and productive way with others in general; demonstrates preparedness for most or all classes; usually mentally engages in classroom activities and maintains physical attentiveness in body posture; Occasionally volunteers answers or questions; attempts to speak only in Spanish in most classroom contexts but occasionally uses English words or phrases

Mediocre (17.5-19.5): Interacts mostly out of necessity to complete a task; may demonstrate regular lack of preparation for class; somewhat disengaged in classroom activities and may maintain a disengaged body posture or demonstrate excessive tiredness; Avoids volunteering in class; Utilizes Spanish to complete tasks but may use English frequently when tasks are complete

Improvement Needed (17 and below): Students receiving a grade in this category should consult the instructor for ways to improve iATENCIÓN! Many circumstances may lower a student's participation grade. Some examples: a) arriving late and/or leaving early; b) having excessive tiredness; c) demonstrating a poor attitude and/or lack of interest; d) not speaking in both larger and smaller group settings; e) packing up to leave before class finishes; e) speaking English; etc.

ORAL ASSESSMENT

Although general oral assessment naturally takes place during class as part of participation and collaboration during activities, there are four formal oral assessments in this course (two per semester). Students will be assessed individually, utilizing the following rubric:

Excellent (25): Clearly demonstrates preparation of possible topics; incorporates a wide variety of vocabulary, grammar, and expressions from relevant material; expands beyond basic responses and develops the conversation; speaks with clarity, proper pronunciation, and few or no grammatical errors; avoids expressions borrowed from other languages

Great (22.5-24.5): Clearly demonstrates preparation of possible topics; incorporates appropriate vocabulary, grammar, and expressions from relevant material; expands beyond basic responses and develops the conversation; speaks with clarity, but may have occasional pronunciation or grammatical errors or expressions borrowed from other languages

Appropriate (20-22): Demonstrates preparation of possible topics but may have neglected a few topics to focus on others; incorporates some appropriate vocabulary, grammar, and expressions from relevant material; offers more basic responses without further development of the conversation; may exhibit a variety of pronunciation and grammatical errors and include expressions borrowed from other languages

Mediocre (17.5-19.5): Demonstrates a lack of necessary preparation of possible topics; incorporates some appropriate vocabulary, grammar, and expressions from relevant material but only in a basic sense; offers responses to minimally meet the requirements of the topic; exhibits a variety of pronunciation and grammatical errors and expressions borrowed from other languages

Improvement Needed (17 and below): Students receiving a grade in this category should consult the instructor for help to improve

COMPOSITIONS

In-class compositions are designed to help students improve their writing skills. Composition topics will be revealed during class on the composition days, and students will write their essays in class during the allotted time. Focus will be on relevant vocabulary and grammar topics. Once the rough drafts have been graded, students will be required to make improvements, expand their essays, and submit final drafts. Grading rubrics for rough drafts and final drafts can be found in Canvas.

CULTURAL READING QUIZZES

Five reading passages are assigned for homework each semester, each passage having a corresponding 10 pt in-class quiz. Passages can be found in Canvas.

Attendance Policy

Attendance is mandatory. Students may receive excused absences at the professional discretion of the school nurse, the associate director of mental health services, the associate director of college counseling and student engagement, the director of academic affairs, and the executive director of the Indiana Academy. Unexcused absences occur when students miss class without prior approval from the aforementioned designated school officials. Continued absences (both excused and unexcused) from Academy classes increase the likelihood of unsuccessful completion.

Alongside steady attendance, students are expected to maintain consistent healthy habits of decorum, respect, and kindness towards their classmates, instructors, and teaching assistants. When students fail to meet these classroom behavioral standards and academic habits, it is the expectation faculty engage appropriately to bring quick and immediate resolution. When students consistently fail to meet these behavioral standards and academic habits in the classroom, an administrative consequence ladder will be adopted, and recorded, in attempt to administratively address, engage, and rectify ongoing challenges.

Students arriving 5-10 minutes late to class will be counted as "tardy", and those arriving after 10 minutes will be counted "late". Sleeping in class will be counted as an unexcused absence. Learning a language is a cumulative process that cannot be "crammed". Regular attendance is crucial to your success in this course. Students may miss 2 instructional days (i.e. non-assessment days) without participation penalty per semester, but absences will still be recorded, as required.

Excused Absences: Some excused absences are unanticipated. Students should address unanticipated absences with the instructor as soon as is possible to determine the proper course of action. Some excused absences are anticipated. Students should always address anticipated absences with the instructor in advance and follow the protocol below.

Protocol: Anticipated excused absences on instructional days: Students are expected to proactively submit any assigned work prior to normal class time of the due date (in person or electronically). Anticipated excused absences on assessment days (e.g. exams, oral assessment, in-class compositions): Students must provide official documentation/verification of the reason for absence and are expected to proactively work with the instructor to determine the proper course of action to make up the missed assessment within five school days of the absence.

Unexcused Absences: Unexcused absences are considered anticipated absences since the student has chosen not to attend class for a reason other than extenuating circumstances. Students who are absent for an unexcused reason are still expected to submit their homework on time as usual. Late work is not accepted for unexcused absences. IMPORTANT: Students who are absent for an unexcused reason on an assessment day (e.g. exams, oral assessment, in-class compositions) may not make up the assessment.

¡ATENCIÓN! Course Failure Due to Excessive Absences: This is not an online course. Communicative language experiences that occur in the immersive language classroom cannot be easily replicated outside the classroom when students are absent. As a result, students with 10 or more absences in one semester, whether excused or unexcused, will automatically fail the course. Students with excessive absences should consult with the instructor to determine a proper course of action prior to reaching 10 absences (including the allowed 2 absences without participation penalty).

Late Work Policy

Late work is not accepted for credit. For extenuating circumstances associated with unanticipated absences, please see "Attendance Policy".

Make-up/Retake Exam Policy

Missed assessments associated with excused and/or anticipated absences should be addressed with the instructor as soon as possible to determine a proper course of action for making up the assessment. Missed assessments associated with unexcused absences may not be made up. Please refer to "Attendance Policy" for further information.

Dual Credit-High School Credit Policy Statement

Students may choose to enroll in Ball State's Dual Credit Program to earn college credit for SP 201, Intermediate Spanish 1, from Ball State at a reduced rate of tuition ($25 per credit hour or $75 total). Students who are eligible for free or reduced lunch this academic year may enroll at no charge if verified by the school. Free and reduced lunch students will still be responsible for any textbook costs associated with the dual credit course.

To enroll in Ball State's Dual Credit Program, students should have a 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale and complete the application & registration process before the given deadline. Ball State will bill students via postal mail; no money should be submitted to the high school. College credit can only be earned during the semester (or, in the case of year-long classes, during the academic year) in which the student is enrolled. Late enrollments are not permitted.

Whether college credit earned through dual credit courses will be accepted by another institution of higher education is determined by the college or university to which a student is seeking admission. Before enrolling through Ball State's Dual Credit Program, students should check directly with that institution to determine if a course will be accepted and how it will be counted toward graduation requirements. Refunds will not be issued if Ball State credits are not able to be transferred. In most cases, students will need to earn a C or better to transfer credit from Ball State to another institution. Grades of D or lower earned in Ball State Dual Credit courses are recorded on a student's Ball State transcript but may not be able to transfer.

The rigor of this course will be periodically reviewed by Ball State University faculty in an effort to maintain the high quality of education that each student receives. To learn more about Ball State's Dual Credit Program, visit bsu.edu/dualcredit, call 765-285-1581 or email dualcredit@bsu.edu.

BSU Student Rights and Responsibilities

While enrolled in Ball State's Dual Credit Program, you are expected to abide by the academic rules of behavior befitting a university student. You should read the Dual Credit Student and Parent Handbook, located at bsu.edu/dualcredit. In particular, review the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, focusing on the policies regarding student rights and responsibilities, behavior, academic integrity, and related procedures.

The Dual Credit Student and Parent Handbook includes information regarding student qualifications, prerequisites, available courses, responsibilities, financial aid stipulations, transferability, withdrawal, refund and billing policies and more. It is important that you review the information contained in it.

Student Academic Ethics Policy

Actions which include but are not limited to cheating, plagiarism, falsely claiming to have completed work, cooperating with another person in academic dishonesty, knowingly destroying or altering another student's work, or attempting to commit an act of academic dishonesty that violates the Student Academic Ethics Policy (http://www.bsu.edu/associateprovost/academicethics).

The consequences of academic dishonesty are determined on a case-by-case basis by each instructor and may include but are not limited to one or more of the following academic sanctions: informal meeting, removal from dual credit course, dismissal from the university, or other appropriate consequence.

AI Policy

The Humanities Division recognizes that artificial intelligence (AI) provides promising new tools for academic work. However, AI also poses significant dangers for academic integrity. Whether a source is print, internet content, or AI-generated, passing off any research, words, or ideas which you did not personally create is plagiarism. Students should consult their humanities instructors regarding AI use in their courses. Indiana Pursuant to Indiana Code 20-26-5-40.7, The Indiana Academy for Science, Mathematics and Academy Humanities prohibits student use of wireless communication devices for non-instructional purposes Wireless in the classroom. As such, any and all portable wireless devices, that have the capability to provide Device Policy voice, messaging, or other data communication between two or more parties, must only be used for academic purposes directly tied to the classroom activity or related educational task. Exceptions to this wireless device policy are eligible through academic accommodations, individualized education programs, or with instructor approval permitting the use of a wireless device for justification related to health, safety, and/or well-being. The improper use of a wireless device in an active classroom setting is subject to disciplinary action including but not limited to; a verbal warning, temporary seizure of said device by a school official, an unexcused absence for the class in question, written communication to parent/guardian, among other elevated consequences for repeated improper use. Policy on the If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, please contact the Office of Disability Services. The Office of Disability Services coordinates services for students with Americans with disabilities; documentation of a disability needs to be on file in that office before any Disabilities accommodations can be provided. Disability services can be contacted at 765-285-5293 or Act (ADA) dsd@bsu.edu. (C) Course Assessment

Tier 1 courses in the Department of Modern Languages and Classics are periodically reviewed to ensure that they successfully contribute to the goals and objectives of the UCC-21 curriculum. Each semester, instructors collect and analyze a variety of data that document the number of students who demonstrate mastery of the knowledge and cognitive skills associated with the targeted UCC-21 transformation. Additionally, the Department has an Assessment Committee that meets to review Tier 1 coursed and their learning outcomes and to make recommendations for change.

Assessment data include at least four of the following:

week; however, plan ahead because appointments book quickly!

- Samples of student work (e.g., bench-marks or exemplary artifacts)
- Sample assessments (e.g., quizzes, tests, exams, project guidelines)
- Syllabus review
- Peer and/or Chair evaluation of teaching
- Student evaluations (the course in general)
- Student surveys
- Assessment matrix that shows connections between assessments used in class and the UCC-21 transformational objectives.

Each semester, instructors in the Tier 1, UCC-21 courses in the Department of Modern Languages and Classics submit the following documentation to the Departmental Assessment Committee: a course syllabus, sample assessments, sample of students' work, and student surveys. Committee meets with the Department Chair to review the data and, possibly, to recommend revisions.

(D) Faculty Qualifications for Domain Courses

The Department of Modern Languages and Classics is integrally associated with the Humanities Domain, the area in which these courses satisfy a three-hour requirement in Tier 1-Humanities. The Department has a number of faculty members who are qualified to teach SP 201 without depending exclusively on one faculty member. The vast majority of instructors who teach 102, 201 and 202 have doctorates in the respective or appropriately related discipline; and, aside from several native-speaking graduate assistants currently completing advanced degrees, all have master's degrees in the discipline. Graduate assistants are required to complete a course in foreign language teaching methodology and they are supervised in their compliance with the respective syllabi.

Syllabus Change Policy

This syllabus is a guide to the course and may be subject to change with reasonable advanced notice as course needs arise.

APPENDIX

B3. SP 102 Course Objectives

- Apply cultural knowledge through interpersonal, interpretive, and presentational modes of communication that cross linguistic and/or national boundaries.
- 2. Analyze literary, linguistic and/or cultural products, practices, and perspectives.

B4. SP 102 Course Content Outline Format

SP 102 builds upon the basic oral and written skills developed in SP 101, and expands understanding of the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world. SP 102 requires a review of the grammatical structures presented in 101, develops new constructions and idioms, and applies this information to an analysis, integration and interpretation of language and culture that result in the acquisition of knowledge.

Linguistic constructions include the following:

- A review of essential grammatical structures and idioms in the first course in Spanish (eg., formation of questions, the formation and use of the present tense of regular verbs commonly used irregular verbs reflexive verbs ad the use of the imperative, various frequently employed idiomatic constructions).
- Employment and uses of the past tenses (i.e., pretérito e imperfecto)
- Descriptive adjective and comparative and superlative degrees.
- Object pronouns, disjunctive pronouns, and their syntax.
- Negative expressions.

Cultural topics assume information of descriptions of individuals and daily living, and require students to relate this vocabulary to a knowledge of diverse Spanish-speaking communities and to a comparison with American life.

Subjects of inquiry include the following:

- Family activities in the Hispanic world. Their comparisons and contrasts within.
- Youth activities in the Hispanic world, their comparisons with those in the U.S.
- Food in the Hispanic world; comparisons and contrasts with American way of life.
- Introduction to geographical aspects of the diverse Spanish-speaking world (e.g., topography, regions, urbanization, climate); differences with the U.S.

Linguistically, students are expected to identify grammatical concepts and essential vocabulary and to employ them correctly in various exercises that include written and oral activities, selected readings, and computer-assisted instruction. Quizzes, tests, and a comprehensive final examination assess competence in this material. The transformation of this information into knowledge requires students to: (1) acquire oral and written proficiency that call for use of the structures and idioms presented in the course, (2) understand and engage actively in conversations on the presented cultural topics, sand (3) demonstrate a familiarity with the geography and customs of the Hispanic world and to relate to these cultures to American daily living. Conversation, compositions, and reading passages enable students to reach these goals of transforming information into knowledge.

B5. Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes

Student learning outcomes in beginning and intermediate language courses (ie., 102, 201, and 202) are evaluated with multiple and varied formative and summative assessments. Formative assessment includes on-going, daily, discrete evaluations; summative assessment includes more comprehensive and/or cumulative evaluations. Assessments focus on productive language skills (i.e., speaking and writing), receptive language skills (i.e., reading and listening comprehension), cultural awareness, and critical analysis in both familiar and novel contexts. Traditional assessment formats, such as quizzes and examinations, are balanced with numerous performance-based tasks that require students to demonstrate their skills and proficiencies in meaningful, real-world applications. Assessments enable students to be active participants who continue to reflect on their learning experiences.

Assessments in 102, 201, and 202 incorporate the UCC-21 cognitive transformations in the following ways:

- Novel contexts allow students to demonstrate skills and proficiencies in situations they have not experienced previously.
- Assessments permit students to measure their strengths and weaknesses reflectively and to plan for improvement.
- Students analyze language patterns and use language for creative expression. Students work independently as well as collaboratively to generate written and oral language.
- Authentic materials allow for the synthesis of information from multiple sources.
- Investigation of diverse cultures enables students to adapt their intellectual framework to accommodate new information and distinct viewpoints of other cultures.
- Students develop the art of communication in more than one language.
- Students develop the art of communication in more than one language.
