Course description: French 3B will develop students’ knowledge of the language, literature, and culture of the francophone world. Emphasis will be placed on improving proficiency in reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the advanced level. Students will practice conversation in French on various topics and will be introduced to works of French literature (plays, novels, poetry). This course may include readings from the textbook/anthology, films, literature, presentations, and other activities. In-class activities focus on active language use, which involves interacting meaningfully with other class participants and developing communicative strategies. French grammar will be reviewed at the advanced level, including the past tenses, the conditional and past conditional, the subjunctive, and other topics.

This course is conducted primarily in French, and students are expected to use French as much as possible. It is natural that you will not understand everything that you read or hear, but if you are patient and committed, you will make progress over the course of the semester.

Course goals:
1. To develop listening comprehension and oral proficiency in French through class discussion and small group activities designed to encourage the use of French.
2. To improve written communication through compositions and guided writing assignments.
3. To deepen cultural understanding and heighten sensitivity to cultural differences by reading literary and cultural texts, viewing films, and researching contemporary topics in the francophone world.
4. To develop reading comprehension and expand vocabulary through reading assignments and in-class discussions.
5. To learn or review French grammatical structures necessary to support communicative skills and develop greater accuracy in spoken and written French through a sequenced study of linguistic structures, in-class activities, and related homework assignments. To be able to communicate in the present, future, and past tenses as well as in the conditional, past conditional, and subjunctive.

Homework (daily assignments, both written and oral) 25%

Participation 20%

Compositions 10%

Oral activities (at least 2 of the following: skits, cultural presentations, oral exams, projects) 15%

Written exams: Chapter exams will be given after each chapter in the textbook. Exams normally include sections focused on grammar, vocabulary, writing and/or reading. There are no make-ups on exams without an approved excuse. It is your responsibility to contact me if you would like to make up an exam due to an excused absence. At least one class period will be devoted to a review session before the exam.

Homework: Homework is due at the beginning of class on Canvas. You must have your work completed and submitted by the beginning of class in order to earn full credit. I will drop the 2 lowest homework grades at the end of the semester.

Compositions give students an opportunity to use the French language in a creative way. Students may complete multiple drafts. Sometimes, the first draft of the composition will be completed in class. The first draft counts as a homework assignment. The final version will be graded.

Oral activities may include skits, oral conversation exams, and cultural presentations or creative projects.

Skits allow students to use the language in a creative way by combining structures, vocabulary, and themes that they have studied during the semester.

Oral exams give students an opportunity to have a conversation in French with a partner. Possible topics for the conversation and more details will be given a week or so before the oral exam.

The cultural presentation is a short presentation in French on a topic of your choice. You will research a topic of interest to you and share what you have learned with the class. These presentations will take place at the end of the semester.

Attendance Policy You are expected to attend all classes. You will be considered tardy if you arrive after the beginning of class. If you are ten minutes late or more, you will be considered absent, but are invited to attend the class session anyway so you will not fall behind.

Course Expectations

Please come prepared for class each day by bringing:

1. Any homework that is due
2. A folder or binder for French
3. Loose-leaf paper
4. French text(s)
5. Writing utensils (pencil, pens – blue or black ink for assignments, plus red or green for corrections)

Be Prepared. focused and ready to learn something new in every class.
Be Proactive, spend time outside of class preparing for the day. Make flashcards, watch videos, and ask questions when you don’t understand.
Participate. Engagement and participation in class are highly encouraged. Be brave and try out your new skills. Speak French in class every day.
Be Responsible. Take responsibility for your learning by seeking outside opportunities to strengthen your language skills. Ensure all assignments are submitted according to deadlines. Class attendance is also important to help you benefit from the course.
Be Respectful towards teacher, classmates, and the environment. Encourage one another and stay united as a team!

Participation You cannot learn a language without taking risks and speaking it in class. Your participation in class is very important, and will have an effect on all aspects of your grade. You will receive a participation grade on top of any formative and/or summative assessments. See Barème de Participation.

Use of Technology All electronic devices are to remain off unless otherwise instructed. The unauthorized use of a device is strictly forbidden and will result in a warning the first time the student is caught and confiscation of the device the second time. In addition, your attendance will be recorded as “unauthorized use of device” and consequences will occur. The authorized online dictionary is www.wordreference.com and its downloadable app. The use of Google Translate or other translating sites, devices or software is strictly forbidden. (See Academic Integrity below).

Electronic communication: I will post the course syllabus, schedule changes, practice exercises, additional activities and announcements on Canvas. You are responsible for checking Canvas and PowerSchool on a regular basis so you do not miss anything.

Indiana Academy Unexcused Absence Policy

It is the policy of the Indiana Academy that any absence from class is unexcused, except for illness, death in the family, college or school-related activities, and extenuating circumstances. When a student is absent from a class, the instructor reports the student absence to the Faculty Attendance Coordinator in the Office of Academic Affairs. Unless the absence is excused by a school official, it is considered unexcused. The decision as to whether an absence is excused is not determined by the instructor.

You are expected to attend every class. Four (4) or more unexcused absences will lead to academic and residential consequences beyond the scope of this class determined by the Office of Academic Affairs (i.e., residential groundings, parent/principal conference, and/or detention).

Assignments, presentations, projects, and tests missed due to absences will be handled according to the late work policy of this class (see make-up work and late work policies below).

Make-up Work It is your responsibility to find out what announcements and assignments have been missed after an absence. Whether excused or unexcused, you may not use an absence as a reason for not being prepared or failing to turn in work. It is your responsibility to check Canvas or with a classmate to learn what we went over and what to prepare for next time. If your absence will be excused, you must provide me with appropriate, timely documentation in advance of your absence. If an emergency causes your absence, notify me immediately and supply appropriate, timely documentation in order to schedule a make-up or receive credit for late work. This is only allowed in extreme cases. Make up tests will be given during office hours. All work missed due to an unexcused absence will be a zero.

Late Work Late assignments will be accepted for half credit if you hand them in the NEXT DAY. Remember that this is still a “D*,” but it is better than a zero. All late work must be labeled LATE. Work handed in more than one day late will NOT be accepted for a grade (but you are encouraged to submit it in a timely manner for feedback purposes).

Diversity Statement Ball State University aspires to be a university that attracts and retains a diverse faculty, staff, and student body. We are committed to ensuring that all members of the community are welcome, through valuing the various experiences and worldviews represented at Ball State and among those we serve. We promote a culture of respect and civil discourse as expressed in our Beneficence Pledge and through university resources found at http://cms.bsu.edu/campuslife/multiculturalcenter.

Disabilities or Special Needs If any disability requires course adaptations or accommodations, if emergency medical information needs to be shared with me, or if any special arrangements must be made in order to evacuate the building, please advise me at your earliest convenience.

INDIANA ACADEMY MASK POLICY
a. Requirement
b. The Indiana Academy will follow Ball State University’s mask policy. Effective July 1, 2020, all people on campus—including faculty, staff, students, vendors, contractors, suppliers, and visitors—should wear face masks (covering nose and mouth) while inside campus buildings. Face masks are specifically required in the following situations:
   i. When in the presence of others (indoors or outdoors) and physical distancing is difficult to maintain, such as in hallways, elevators, stairs, public spaces, and common areas;
   ii. When in a classroom or laboratory;
   iii. When using campus transportation (such as a shuttle bus);
   iv. When multiple individuals are in a University vehicle. Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to bring their own mask. Masks will be provided to anyone who is unable to bring a mask or their mask is damaged.

   c. Non-compliance: If a student declines to wear a face mask as required, the student will be referred to the Director of Academic Affairs or the Director of Residential Affairs. If the situation occurs in a classroom or other academic setting, it is considered a classroom management issue, and the teacher will remind the student of the requirement and give the student a chance to comply with it prior to referring the matter to the Director of Academic Affairs or the Director of Residential Affairs. Wearing masks is crucial to preventing the spread of COVID-19 to others.

   Academic Integrity Honesty, trust, and personal responsibility are fundamental attributes of the Indiana Academy community. Because language should be communicative, students are encouraged to collaborate in their studying. You may make judicious use of advice from native speakers and tutors. However, this does not mean copying someone else's work or letting someone copy your work. It means working with a partner to gain a better understanding of the material, drill conjugations and vocabulary, read the literature together, etc. All work that you turn in—in class or otherwise—must be your own and completed without any kind of outside assistance. If you have questions about what constitutes “your own” work, please see me. The use of electronic translators of any kind is strictly forbidden in and outside the classroom. Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Academic dishonesty will result in a grade of zero for the assignment and other penalties outlined in the Student Handbook.
